EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

In re: City of Detroit, Michigan, Debtor.

Bankruptcy Case No. 13-53846
Honorable Thomas J. Tucker
Chapter 9

REPLY IN SUPPORT OF DEBTOR'S
THIRTY-EIGHTH OMNIBUS OBJECTION TO CERTAIN CLAIMS

(Tax Refund Claims Not Subject to the Claims Process in this Bankruptcy Case)

The City of Detroit ("City"), by its undersigned counsel, files this reply in support of its Thirty-Eighth Omnibus Objection to Certain Claims ("Objection," Doc. No. 10813), stating as follows:

1. On March 10, 2016, the City filed its Objection. The following individuals filed responses to the Objection:

- (a) Response filed by Eric Heckmann [Doc. No. 11013]. Heckmann's proof of claim and his response to the Objection are attached as Exhibits 1 and 2.
- (b) Response filed by Dianne Thomas [Doc. No. 11037]. Thomas's proof of claim and her response to the Objection are attached as Exhibits 3 and 4.

2. On October 22, 2014, the City filed the Eight Amended Plan of the Adjustment of Debts of the City of Detroit (October 22, 2014) [Doc. No. 8045] ("Plan").

3. On November 12, 2014, this Court entered an Order confirming the Plan [Doc. No. 8272] (“Confirmation Order”).

4. With respect to tax refund claims, the Plan provides

From and after the Effective Date, the City will continue to administer (either directly or through a third party administrator) and pay all valid claims for income tax refunds and property tax refunds for which the City is responsible under applicable law, regardless of when the applicable right to a refund arose, in accordance with the City's prepetition practices and procedures. The City expressly reserves the right to challenge the validity of any claim for an income tax refund or property tax refund.

Plan Art. IV.T, p. 63; see also Confirmation Order, p. 108-09, ¶ 59.

5. Thus, tax refund claims are not subject to the claim process in this bankruptcy case because they are to be administered by the City in accordance with the City's prepetition practices and procedures.

6. Both claimants assert that they are entitled to a tax refund due to the alleged overpayment of property taxes. As such, the claims of both claimants fall squarely within the above quoted provision of the Plan regarding tax refund claims. Consequently, both responses should be overruled and the claims disallowed.

CONCLUSION

For these reasons, the City asks the Court to overrule the responses and sustain the City's Objection to these claims.

U.S. BANKRUPTCY COURT
E.D. MICHIGAN-DETROIT

RE: " Claim No. 2024, Heckmann, Eric C., UNLIQUIDATED, Secured, 2/20/2014"

OBJECTION TO CITY'S PROPOSAL

I hereby object to the City's proposal to having the Court dismiss my claim which was timely filed and was for the refund of my overpayment of property taxes caused by the City's failure to properly and promptly record my property tax payment in its tax revenue system, thereby causing me to have to make a double payment in order to avoid the Wayne County Treasurer from assessing me extra penalties and interest on supposedly late/delinquent payments. The Wayne County Treasurer's Office in previous years penalized me when the City failed to record my property tax payments in a timely manner, and then improperly delayed the transmission of the Wayne County share of taxes to the Wayne County Treasurer's Office, thereby causing me to have to pay the Wayne County Treasurer an extra approximately $100 in allegedly late payment penalties and interest in some past years.

I also object to the language contained in the City's request to the Court that ... " the relief requested in the Objection is in the best interests of the City, and its creditors; ..." as is stated on Page 13 of 25, COPY ENCLOSED. This statement is not only untrue, it is also completely asinine from a legal standpoint as it presumes that the Creditors have already agreed to the City's proposal to not honor the legitimate refunds due to the creditor(s). This statement by the City is tantamount to saying that the Plaintiffs, i.e. the City's creditors such as myself, and the City, i.e., the Defendant, are in agreement or have agreed that the Defendant's proposal is agreeable to the Creditors, i.e., me, etc.

I certainly do not, and will never, agree that the City should be able to keep money that it was not legally entitled to keep in the first place, regardless of its filing for bankruptcy. I have never agreed to make donations of my limited monies to the City for the City to keep and do whatever it wants to do with these funds such as giving raises to current employees at the direct expense of retirees and creditors. Had the City properly and timely recorded my payments at the time they were made, there would not even be any claim now for me to have made. And further, had the City Treasurer's Office processed my refund in a timely manner as was stated in their emails to me at the time indicating that my refund had been processed, there would never be a Claim still now in dispute.

As such, I am requesting hereby that the Court NOT APPROVE the City's proposal with respect to my claim for a property tax refund due to my actual overpayment which was originally caused by the City's own failure to have properly and timely recorded my payments and then transmitted the Wayne County share of the payments to the Wayne County Treasurer in a timely fashion, as the City repeatedly failed to do in prior years.

Lastly, as the Court document states that ... " You must attend the hearing on the objection scheduled to be held on April 13, 2016 unless your attendance is excused by mutual agreement between yourself and the objector's attorney", I hereby request that I be excused from attending the hearing due to medical reasons which prevent me from walking any distance greater than 100 feet. As I am all alone due to my wife's very recent death, I have no one that can drive me to Detroit for this hearing. Also, as a City retiree, I have already been sufficiently harmed and punished vis-à-vis the bankruptcy outcomes so as to not deserve the additional punishment requested by the City of not returning/refunding my property tax overpayment money that I was told by the City Treasurer's Office was in process of being refunded to me in an email long before the bankruptcy was ever even filed by the City.

Thank you very much for your consideration of my objections and my request for being excused from attending the scheduled April 13, 2016 hearing due to the reasons cited above.

Sincerely,

Eric C. Heckmann

ORDER GRANTING DEBTOR'S THIRTY-EIGHTH OMNIBUS OBJECTION TO CERTAIN CLAIMS

(Tax Refund Claims Not Subject to the Claims Process in this Bankruptcy Case)

Upon review of the thirty-eighth objection to claims (the "Objection"),⁴ of the Debtor, City of Detroit, Michigan (the "City"), seeking entry of an order disallowing and expunging each of the claims listed on Exhibit 2 to the Objection; and it appearing that this Court has jurisdiction over the Objection pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and Article VII of the Plan; and the Court having found that this is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2); and the Court having found that venue of this proceeding and the Objection in this District is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and it appearing that the relief requested in the Objection is in the best interests of the City, and its creditors; and due and proper notice of the Objection having been given as provided in the Objection; and it appearing that no other or further notice of the ⁴ Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Objection.

The ground for objection to each claim listed below is that it is a tax refund claim that is not subject to the claims administration process in this bankruptcy case. Each of the pages in the omnibus objection is pertinent to the stated ground for objection.

To Whom it May Concern:

My claim is based on property tax overpayment from 2008-2013.

When the bulk pick up tax was instated around 2008 by then Mayor Kilpatrick, I paid the tax bill each summer and winter. At the same time I was sending my payment into the city, my mortgage company, PennyMac was also making the same payment. The city of Detroit never reimbursed me for those duplicate property tax payments.

I have attached some documentation to verify my personal payments.

S. BANKRUPTCY COURT
D. MICHIGAN-DETROIT

To The United States Bankruptcy Court Eastern District of Michigan Southern

Division:

Re: Objection to the disallowing, modification and/or expungement of my city property tax refund claim

I am the homeowner of 119 W. Euclid, Detroit, MI 48202. I am also a retired senior citizen. My property taxes were paid by my mortgage company, Nationstar (at that time). I began paying an additional property tax to the city in 2008 as a result of a mileage passed regarding the trash and bulk pick-up in the city of Detroit. I did not notify my mortgage company because I decided to pay the additional taxes myself. (See attachments.)

Little did I know that the city had notified my mortgage company (Nationstar) of the additional taxes, and they began paying as well. This meant that the city was receiving two payments each tax period for this additional amount. It would seem that the city's tax department should have seen the overpayment and notified me to stop paying my portion, because my mortgage company had factored the increase into its property tax payments.

The City of Detroit continued to receive my overpayment for close to five years in the total amount of $1517.00. This was a gross oversight and some incompetence on the part of the city's tax department. The City had almost five years to recognize its financial errors and write me a letter of apology, along with a reimbursement check. Had my taxes been delinquent, it would have taken the city no time at all to notify me.

It is my profound declaration that the City of Detroit do one of three things to rectify this property tax owed to me:

1. Send me a check for the entire amount ($1517.00) plus appropriate interest/or
2. Reduce my property taxes over a five- year period until the debt is paid/or
3. Deduct this year's property taxes and send me a check for the balance, if any is left after this year's taxes have been paid.

Thank you in advance for your attention to this property tax refund claim.
