I believe I filed a claim with the City of Detroit in error. I have been receiving monthly checks from the Detroit Police Pension Board as part of my divorce settlement per the Qualified Domestic Relations Order (QDRO) that they have on file. There has been no disruption in my monthly payments.

I contacted the Pension Board and was informed the Retirement System and the City of Detroit are separate entities. The city is not the administrator of the benefit plan, but rather the Detroit Police Retirement System. The purpose of this letter is my requested written response to the Forty-Seventh Omnibus Objection.

Thank you,

Linda A Caldwell
