Chapter 9

Case No. 13-53846

Hon. Steven W. Rhodes

MOTION FOR LIMITED RELIEF FROM AUTOMATIC STAY

K.S. Doe (“Movant”), by and through his attorneys, files this Motion for Limited Relief from Automatic Stay for the limited purposes of asserting a claim for civil rights violations against Charles Pugh, a City of Detroit employee. In support of this Motion, Movant states as follows:

Jurisdiction

1. The above-captioned Chapter 9 proceedings were commenced by the City on July 18, 2013.
2. This motion is filed under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d), as made applicable by 11 U.S.C. § 922(b) and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 4001 and 9014.
3. This is a core proceeding over which this Court has jurisdiction. See 28 U.S.C § 157(b)(2)(G) and 28 U.S.C. § 1334.

Background

4. When the City’s bankruptcy case was filed, Charles Pugh was the President of Detroit City Council, and an employee of the City of Detroit.
5. Movant, K.S. Doe, is a Michigan resident residing in the City of Highland Park.

6. In 2009, while City Council President, Charles Pugh established the Charles Pugh Leadership Forum at the Frederick Douglass Academy for Young Men (“the Academy”). At the time, Movant was a student attending the Academy.

7. Movant’s claim arises from a series of incidents beginning in 2013 when Pugh, in his capacity as City Council President and as the facilitator for the Charles Pugh Leadership Forum, sexually harassed Movant.

8. Movant’s claims are secured by the filing of a Proof of Claim with this Court on February 20, 2014. A copy of the filed form is attached as Exhibit A.

9. On March 21, 2014, Movant’s counsel contacted Heather Lennox of the Jones-Day law firm seeking stipulation for relief from the bankruptcy stay.

10. On March 24, 2014, Movant’s counsel sent a proposed stipulation to lift the bankruptcy stay to Stephen LaPlante of Miller, Canfield, Paddock, & Stone (co-counsel in the bankruptcy proceedings), attached hereto as Exhibit B.

11. Over the next seven weeks Movant’s counsel forwarded a stipulation, a draft complaint and answered all questions posed by counsel for the City of Detroit in the bankruptcy proceeding. Movant’s counsel further indicated that given Mr. Pugh’s apparent willingness to flee to avoid responsibility in this case, Movant’s counsel did not wish to file a motion that would put Pugh on notice. At that point in time, Movant was aware of where Mr. Pugh resided.

12. On April 29, 2014, Mr. LaPlante informed Movant’s counsel by email that we “should have an approved version of the stipulation and order for you by Wednesday or Thursday”. See Exhibit C.

13. On May 6, 2014, Mr. LaPlante informed Movant's counsel that the City of Detroit Law Department had denied our request, without any explanation or counter proposal, in spite of Movant's request for an explanation. See Exhibit D.

14. Movant seeks to file a complaint against Charles Pugh individually and the Detroit Public Schools. Movant's proof of claim against the City of Detroit has, pursuant to the Court's scheduling order, been filed in this Court. See Exhibit A.

15. Movant is willing to stipulate that any proceedings that directly impact the City of Detroit, including any direct action against the City, claims for indemnification and/or contribution be addressed only in this Court. Further, Movant will only seek relief from the stay that would allow the filing of a complaint against Pugh individually, the Charles Pugh Leadership Forum, and Detroit Public Schools.

Legal Basis for Motion

16. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d), the automatic stay created by the filing of these proceedings may be terminated, annulled, or modified for "cause". See 11 U.S.C. §§ 922(b) and 362(d).

17. The Bankruptcy Code does not define cause for purposes of when to allow relief from the automatic stay, so "courts must determine whether discretionary relief is appropriate on a case-by-case basis." Trident Associates Ltd. P'ship v. Metro Life Ins. Co. (In re Trident Associates Ltd. P'ship), 52 F.3d 127, 131 (6th Cir. 1995).

18. To guide the bankruptcy court's exercise of its discretion, the Sixth Circuit identifies five factors for the court to consider: (1) "judicial economy"; (2) "trial readiness"; (3) "the resolution of preliminary bankruptcy issues"; (4) "the creditor's chance of success on the merits"; and (5) "the cost of defense or other potential burden to the bankruptcy estate and the impact of the litigation on other creditors.” Garzoni v. K-Mart Corp.(In re Garzoni), 35 Fed. Appx. 179, 181 (6th Cir. Mich. 2002)(citing In re United Imports, Inc., 203 B.R. 162, 167 (Bankr. D. Neb. 1996)).

19. Movant asserts that cause exists for limited relief from the automatic stay for the reasons stated in the accompanying brief.

Request for Relief

WHEREFORE, Movant respectfully requests that this Court enter an order lifting the automatic stay to permit Movant to assert a claim for civil rights violations against Charles Pugh, and pursuant to the attached proposed order, no effort to collect any funds shall occur outside of this honorable court’s jurisdiction in bankruptcy, as well as grant such further relief as the Court deems just and equitable considering the facts and circumstances of this case.

Chapter 9

Case No. 13-53846

Hon. Steven W. Rhodes

BRIEF IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR LIMITED RELIEF FROM AUTOMATIC STAY

Facts

K.S. Doe (“Movant”) relies on the facts, authority, and exhibits cited and attached in his Motion for Limited Relief From Automatic Stay. Further, this case involves lifting the stay to pursue claims against former City Council President, Charles Pugh. In his capacity as City Council President, he established the Charles Pugh Leadership Forum at the Academy. This program was designed to provide mentorship to students attending the Academy. The program then developed into a mandatory class for high school seniors. Pugh, in his capacity as City Council President, used his power, title, and prestige to target vulnerable young men, including but not limited to Movant. As such, he used his position and title as an opportunity to sexually harass Movant.

Law

An automatic stay serves several purposes. First, it gives a bankrupt a breathing spell from creditors by stopping all collection efforts, all harassment, and all foreclosure actions. The stay is “automatic” because it is triggered as against all entities upon the filing of a bankruptcy petition, irrespective of whether the parties to the proceedings stayed are aware that a petition has been filed. Only the bankruptcy court with jurisdiction over the case has the authority to grant relief from the stay of judicial proceedings against the debtor. Maritime Elec. Co., Inc. v. United Jersey Bank, 959 F.2d 1194, 1204 (3rd Cir. 1991).

In this case, this Court entered an order on July 25, 2013 whereby all persons were stayed, restrained, and enjoined from commencing any judicial, administrative, or other proceeding that would have been commenced before the City's chapter 9 case was commenced (docket 167). The order further stayed commencement of any action against City Officers, in whatever capacity they may serve. This case specifically involves one of the highest-ranking officials in the City of Detroit, the Council President. In his capacity as City Council President, Pugh established the Charles Pugh Leadership Forum at the Academy. He used his power, prestige, and title to place himself in a position to abuse Movant. As such, the stay prohibiting commencement of any action against City Officers must be lifted in order to make Movant whole.

For reasons unknown to Movant's counsel, the City of Detroit has refused to stipulate to the relief requested herein, without explanation, in spite of their history of doing this in other matters. (See docket 2584.)

In exercising its power to vacate or modify a stay, the court must consider the particular circumstances of the case and ascertain what is just to the claimants, the debtor, and the estate. In re Mego Intern., Inc., 28 B.R. 324, 326 (Bkrtcy. S.D.N.Y. 1983).

In this case, Movant and his family have suffered emotional and psychological damage as a result of Pugh's actions. Additionally, Movant was taunted and harassed not only by his peers, but also by the press as a result of these incidents. Conversely, Pugh has suffered only shame and embarrassment that he brought upon himself as a result of his sexual harassment of Movant. In weighing the particulars of this case, it is clear that Movant's harms and damages greatly outweigh Pugh's self-inflicted embarrassment. As such, this Court is requested to lift this stay in order to allow Movant to vindicate his rights.

Based on the foregoing, Movant respectfully requests that this Court grant relief from the automatic stay, for the limited purpose of allowing Movant to assert a claim for civil rights violations against Charles Pugh.

Hello Mr. LaPlante,

My name is Choi Portis and I am an associate attorney at Seikaly & Stewart, P.C. I contacted Heather Lennox from Jones Day regarding this issue, and she indicated that I should contact you.
